

April 2010

SENECA SUNBEAM

Happy Easter

Top left - Benita Spaulding & Martha Kuster in back, talk w/children about their baskets as John Chabal does the same in top photo.

All the egg seekers line up as residents and guests look on. At right, Roburta Marsh visits with a couple of the girls, after the egg hunt.

April started off with Easter activities at Seneca Sunrise which took place on Good Friday. Area elders were invited to join residents for an Easter dinner, which many were able to attend and share a good meal and conversation. Several stuck around for the afternoon activities which included musical entertainment and an Easter egg hunt. Charlene and Russell Lemburg from Kearney entertained with keyboard and guitar while Harold Ward showed his talents on the dulcimer. They played and sang songs to fit the Easter season and had many hands a clapping and toes a tapping. Residents and guests later enjoyed watching more than a dozen children from a couple local in-home daycares as they scurried around, gathering eggs in their baskets. The children stayed around for a while giving all an opportunity to enjoy their company as they discovered the treasures in their eggs. It was a very busy but also happy day. Residents always enjoy sharing in the fun with visitors no matter what their age.